Title- Chavez takes one more step toward nationalizing the economy

Main editorial in business oriented Valor Economico (5-12) states:
"...One of the indications that the oil business is not doing well [in Venezuela] is the nationalization of 60 contractor companies....As the crisis gets worse, Venezuela's President....increases his control over all sectors that are vital to the economy...Chavez is destroying democracy in his country....This way, the Bolivarian Socialism becomes each day more akin to the dictatorial regimes that destroyed the country - and it tends to have the same end."
